RE: DOCKET NUMBER: 98P-0151/CP1

To whom it may concern:

I worked for 13 years as a cruelty investigator for a local humane society in north Texas. In those years I received numerous complaints of downed cows at sales barns. Their suffering was extreme. For this reason and for public health reasons, I hope the FDA will create and enforce regulations forbidding the sale of sick and downed animals and mandate their prompt and humane euthanization by a licensed vet.

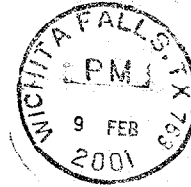

Sincerely,

Jan Herzog
